INDEX TO VOL. I.

The first numeral refers to the issue number, the second to page. Thus 3-4 is to be read "No. 3, page 4."

Acetic acid, vinegar as substitute for, 8-2
Albumen paper, introduction of, 3-3
American Photographic Exchange Club, The, 2-4
Arctic, photography in the, 8-1

Blanchard, Valentine, on working the collodion process, 4-2
Blanquart-Evrard, Louis Désiré, photographic contributions of, 3-3
Bond, William Cranach, takes first daguerreotype of star, 1-1
Brady, Mathew B., activity as case maker, 3-2
Brainerd, George Branford, photographs vocal chords, 7-3
Breyer, Albrecht, invents reflex printing, 4-3

Camera, detective, designed by Eastman, 1-3; moving picture, 8-3; in form of revolver, 7-4
Cameron, Julia Margaret, photograph by, 2-suppl.
Caruso, T. Anthony, 7-3
Chaplin, Charles, review of his film Limelight, 8-4
Chilton, James R., publishes Daguerre manual, 9-2
Claudet, Antonie Francois Jean, invents focimeter, 2-1
Collodion process, difficulty of working, 4-2
Color photography, exhibition of, 5-1; putative discovery of, 5-2
Cossitt, Franklin M., designs camera with Eastman, 1-3
Critcherson, photographs in Arctic, 8-1
Crookes, William, test photograph by, 2-1
Curtis, Edward S., photographs N. American Indians, 4-4

Dagron, René Prudent, makes first microfilms, 1-4
Daguerreotype, introduction of, to America, 1-2
Daguerre, his manual in U.S., 9-2
Daguerreotype cases, manufactured by Brady, 3-2
Dallas, Duncan C., 2-2
Dancer, John Benjamin, early microphotographic work, 8-2
Ducos du Hauron, Louis, discovers principles of color photography, 6-2
Dunmore, photographs in Arctic, 8-1

Eastman, George, designs Detective camera, 1-3, 3-4; report on his first gelatin plates, 5-3
Edison, Thomas Alva, invents Kinetoscope motion-picture viewer, 3-2
Exposure table, first, 9-2

Faust, notes on the moving picture, 5-4
Fenton, Roger, his photo van, 9-1
Fizeau, Hippolyte Louis, invents gold toning and photogravure technique, 5-3
Fixing, discovery of, by Herschel, 1-4
Focimeter invented by Claudet, 2-1
Ford, Francis, motion picture work of, 2-3
Fraprie, Frank Roy, obituary, 2-3
French, Thomas R., photographs vocal chords, 7-3

Gernsheim, Helmut; review of his Masterpieces of Victorian Photography, 3-4
Gernsheim, Helmut and Alison, 6-1
Gold fields, photographs of, 9-3
Gold toning, invention of, 5-3
Gouraud, François, publishes manual, 9-2

Harvard College Observatory, early astronomical photography at, 1-1
Herschel, Sir John F. W., describes fixing, coins words "photography," "snapshot," 1-4; portrait of, 2-suppl.
Hill, Levi L., putative discovery of color photography by, 5-2
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 3-1
Horse in gallop, 4-3
Hough, E. K., 5-3
Hugo, Charles, as photographer, 7-1
Hugo, Victor, photographs of, 7-1
Humphrey, Samuel Dwight, takes daguerreotype of moon in 1849, 1-1

Indians, photographs of North American, by Edward S. Curtis, 4-4
International Federation of Film Archives, 9-3
Ives, Frederick Eugene, Color photograph experiment of, 5-1

Jannings, Emil, autobiography reviewed, 5-4
Jefferson, Joe, photograph of, 5-3

Kamm, Leo, invents Kammatograph motion picture camera, 8-3
Kammatograph motion picture camera, 8-3
Kinetoscope motion picture viewer, contemporary description of, 3-2
Kodak camera, description of first model, 1-3
Kromsko color projector, description of, 5-1

Microfilm, first use of, 1-4, 6-3
Microphotography, early experiments by Dancer, 8-2
Monroe, George Hibbard, one of first to use Eastman dry plates, 5-3
Moving pictures, problems of collecting, 7-4; favorite subjects, 1-2; collecting, 9-3
Murnau, F. W., directs moving picture Faust, 5-4
Museum of photography, 1871, plea for a, 2-2
Muybridge, Eadweard, description of photographs in action, 4-3

Niepce, Nicéphore, first photograph by, 6-1

Photography, early astronomical, 1-1; its practice in China, 7-3; early criminological use of, 7-2; first successful result, 6-1; of galloping horse, 4-3; early medical, 4-1; of the vocal chords, 7-3
Photogravure, early experiments by Fizeau, 5-3
Pigeon post, use of photography to facilitate, 1-4, 6-4
Ponton, Mungo, discovers light-sensitivity of potassium bichromate, 3-3

Reflex printing, invention of, 4-3
Richardson, Benjamin, photographs celebrities, 5-3

Sarony, Napoleon, Account of his studio, 5-3
Seager, D. W., claims to have taken first photograph in U.S., 1-2
Smith, Frank, 9-2
Sodium thiosulphate, first description of its use as fixing agent, 1-4
Stenger, Erich, review of books by, 3-4
Stereoscope, Holmes, description of invention, 3-1

Talbot, William Henry Fox, letter by, 2-3; description of first technique, 3-3

Vacquerie, Auguste, photographs Victor Hugo, 7-1
Van, Fenton's photo, 9-1
Vance, Robert H., photographs gold fields, 9-3

Wachter, L. draws accurate pictures of gallopping horse before instantaneous photography, 4-3
Whipple, John Adams, takes first daguerreotype of star, 1-1

IMAGE, Journal of Photography of the George Eastman House, 900 East Avenue, Rochester 7, New York. Editors: Oscar N. Solbert, Beaumont Newhall, James G. Card. Associate Editor: Marion N. Gleason. Editorial Assistants: Dean Freiday, Warren C. Stevens, Howard Keith Stott, Erwin J. Ward. Printed in U.S.A.